A moth light lure will have been set overnight. Join us to discover the species in the trap. All moths are released unharmed back into their habitat once identified.

Bring suitable outdoor clothing for the weather and refreshments as required.

We'll be using the 'LERC Wales' App to record. To join in using the app, please download the app beforehand and create an account. You can also record using a notebook and pencil, and submit that to record.wwbic.org.uk
